

“Dr. Greenberg and her staff are incredible. They saved our dog’s quality of life with their patience, guidance and understanding. She’s probably the best vet we’ve ever had. Highly recommend!” - Google review from Kate R.

ABOUT

SHARI GREENBERG DVM, DACVO

Dr. Shari Greenberg is a board-certified veterinary ophthalmologist who brings a wealth of clinical experience and a deep commitment to the Connecticut veterinary community. Originally from New York, Dr. Greenberg has spent over 13 years practicing in the region, earning a reputation for her surgical precision and her empathetic approach to patient care. She believes that every animal—from the smallest exotic pet to the largest horse—deserves specialized attention and a tailored treatment plan.

After receiving her veterinary degree from Tufts University, Dr. Greenberg completed a small animal medicine and surgery internship at the University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine. Her passion for ophthalmology led her to remain at the University of Florida for a rigorous residency in comparative ophthalmology. She achieved board certification as a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists in 2013.

Why Dr. Greenberg is the Right Choice for your Pet

- Board-Certified Expertise: As a Diplomate of the ACVO, Dr. Greenberg has undergone extensive post-doctoral training and passed comprehensive examinations, placing her among a small group of specialists dedicated exclusively to animal eye health.
- Versatile Specialist Care: Dr. Greenberg’s expertise spans a vast range of species. She is equally skilled in managing complex ocular conditions in dogs and cats as she is in treating large animals and exotic pets, ensuring that all patients have access to advanced ophthalmic care.
- Academic and Clinical Leadership: With a background that includes both private multi-specialty practice and academia, Dr. Greenberg has contributed to the field through numerous publications in peer-reviewed journals and textbooks. Her dedication to staying at the forefront of medical advancement directly benefits her patients.
- Compassion: Dr. Greenberg is deeply dedicated to her patients and their families. She understands the bond between pets and their owners and prioritizes clear, compassionate communication to ensure that families feel supported throughout the treatment process.
